LECLERC JURICOMPTABLES JOINS FORCES WITH NAVIGANT CONSULTING

QUEBEC CITY, February 1st, 2007 – Leclerc Juricomptables, the leading forensic accounting and investigations firm in the Province of Quebec, with offices in Quebec City, Montreal, and Ottawa, has joined forces with Navigant Consulting, Inc. (NYSE:NCI), an international consulting firm, and Canada’s leading forensic and investigative accounting practice.

The Leclerc Juricomptables service offerings are a solid match with those offered by the Dispute, Investigative and Regulatory Practices Group at Navigant Consulting. Like Navigant Consulting, Leclerc Juricomptables is an independent consulting firm that does not offer audit services, which often lead to conflicts of interest. The Navigant Consulting global platform will allow Leclerc Juricomptables professionals to extend their services beyond their current constituency.

“At Leclerc Juricomptables, we had begun to develop the international French-speaking market for dispute and investigation services. Currently, there is very limited worldwide francophone expertise in these services, and large needs,” stated Guylaine Leclerc, Founder of Leclerc Juricomptables. “Combined with Navigant Consulting’s existing international presence and its Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, and Vancouver offices, our practice will be able to consolidate its position in Quebec’s marketplace, as well as gain ground in French-speaking countries worldwide.”

“Leclerc Juricomptables provides Navigant Consulting with critical mass in Quebec City and Montreal,” stated Bob Macdonald, a Managing Director in Navigant Consulting’s Canadian practice. “Navigant Consulting now has a truly national profile, enabling it to provide the full range of dispute and investigative services in both of Canada’s official languages.”

About Leclerc Juricomptables

Leclerc Juricomptables has been offering forensic accounting services for the past 10 years, mainly in the Province of Quebec and the Ottawa area. The Leclerc professionals provide clients litigation support, damage quantification, financial and fraud investigations, compliance audits, business valuations, and professional training.
